

Ethics and Death, Dying and the Deceased in Disasters

Split University School of Medicine, Croatia

in collaboration with The Centre of Excellence for Integrative Bioethics, Croatia

COST Action IS1201 Conference – 27-28 April 2015

Monday, April 27th
08:30-09:00	Registration
09:00-09:15	Welcome and Opening Remarks tbc – Split University representatives; Goran Mijaljica; Marija Selak Dónal O’Mathúna, Dublin City University, Ireland; Chair of COST Action IS1201
09:15-10:30	Keynote 1 – Dying in Isolation (tentative title) Presenter: Philippe Calain, Research Unit on Humanitarian Stakes and Practices, Médecins Sans Frontières, Switzerland Chair: Eugenijus Gefenas, Vilnius University, Lithuania
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:30	Working group 1 meeting: Healthcare ethics – workshop on developing ethics training material	Working group 2 meeting: Bioethics, culture, & moral theory	Working group 3 meeting: Research ethics	Working group 4 meeting: Ethics & governance
			WG3 & 4: draft UNESCO Guidelines for Children in Research during Disasters
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Working group 1 meeting: Healthcare ethics	Working group 2: Bioethics, culture, & moral theory	Working group 3 meeting: Research ethics	Working group 4 meeting: Ethics & governance
15:00-15:30	Coffee break

15:30-16:30	Working group 1	Catherine Hale and others on developing ethics training material
	Working group 2	Katarina Komenska on her STSM in Thessaloniki
	Working group 3	Eugenijus Gefenas on WG3 activities
	Working group 4	Ana Borovecki on WG4 activities
16:30-17:30	Keynote 2 - Palliative Care in Disasters: A First-Hand Perspective Presenter: Carma Erickson-Hurt, MSN, APRN, ACHP Lecturer, California State University Institute for Palliative Care; Project HOPE volunteer Chair: Ana Borovecki, Zagreb University, Croatia
17:30-18:15	Panel Discussion - Palliative Care Ethics in Disasters. What is Needed? Participants: Philippe Calain, Carma Erickson-Hurt, Salvatore Pisu Chair: Dónal O'Mathúna, Dublin City University, Ireland
19:00-20:00	Walking Tour of Split Old City
20:00	Conference Dinner
Tuesday, April 28th
09:15-10:30	Keynote 3 - Ethical issues with Mass Burial sites after Conflicts (tentative title) Presenter: Marija Definis Gojanovic, Split University, Croatia Chair: Goran Mijaljica, Split University, Croatia
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-13:00	Working group 1 meeting: Healthcare ethics	Working group 2 meeting: Bioethics, culture, & moral theory	Working group 3 meeting: Research ethics	Working group 4 meeting: Ethics & governance
13:00-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:00	Keynote 4 – Ethics of Forensic Medicine in Disasters: How Prepared are we? An Indian Perspective Presenter: Vina Vaswani, Yenopoya University, Mangalore, India Chair: Bert Gordijn, Dublin City University, Ireland
15:00-16:30	Management Committee Meeting: Focus on Work Plan and Budget for 2015-2016 Chair, Dónal O'Mathúna, Dublin City University, Ireland			